WORLD POETRY DAY COMPETITION

Ballyroan Library is delighted to present its third annual poetry competition to celebrate World Poetry Day (21st March).

There is no set theme. Poems must not exceed 40 lines and must be original and unpublished. All styles and forms are welcome.

The competition is open to poets aged 18 and over.

Prizes are: 1st Prize - €100, 2nd Prize - €50, 3rd Prize - €30 and all poems will be published on South Dublin Libraries' website.

A number of additional poems will be shortlisted, and the winners will be announced at an event in May. As such, the competition is limited to poets based in Dublin, as shortlisted poets must be able to attend May's event.

Submissions are ONLY accepted by email and can be sent to ballyroanlibrarypoetrycomp@gmail.com

Poets may submit up to two poems for consideration. Please make sure to include in your email: name, telephone number and a short biographical note (50 words max). Please include the poem(s) both in the body of the email and as a separate attachment.

The submission period is open from 21st March (World Poetry Day) to 21st April. Submissions sent outside of this period will not be read.
Employees of South Dublin County Council and South Dublin Libraries are not permitted to enter.
