Summer Reading Adventures for Children

'String-A-Long' Music Workshop with Mobile Music School

Tuesday 4th July, 11.00am—12.00noon

Fusing music with art and crafts, this workshop develops children's understanding of the instruments of the orchestra with an emphasis on the string family. It comprises an interactive demonstration, fun-based activities and musical games. Using elastic bands, a pencil and a shoebox, students get to make an instrument – a shoebox harp that they keep. Children should bring their own shoebox.

Suitable for children aged 4 – 8 years

Booking is essential and opens from 20th June @ 9.00am

Booking through www.StringALong.eventbrite.ie

'A Musical Slice' Musical Theatre Workshop With Mobile Music School

Tuesday 4th July, 12.15pm—1.15pm

This musical theatre workshop recreates a 'slice' of a well-known musical through singing, movement and drama and aims to boost students' self-esteem and confidence in performing, while developing their creativity and showmanship in a relaxed, open environment. Participants will learn all about presence on stage, breathing and posture whilst singing, and voice projection and get a chance to perform.

Suitable for ages 9 – 13 years

Booking is essential and opens from 20th June @ 9.00am

Booking through www.MusicalSlice.eventbrite.ie

Selfies! An Art Workshop

Monday 10th July, 11.00am—12.30pm

Everyone loves a selfie! What would you like people to notice when they look at you? In this unique art class artist Caroline Lynch will help you create your own silhouette self-portrait that shows your true colours. Maybe you'd love to have a pair of manga eyes or blue hair! Or why not show everyone the exciting thoughts that are running through your brain?

Suitable for ages 9 – 13 years

Booking is essential and opens from 26th June @9.00am

Booking through www.SelfiesArtWorkshop.ie

Charlie & the Chocolate Factory Craft Workshops

Wednesday 19th July

Sensory-based workshops, encouraging imagination, creativity and a love for the Roald Dahl's great story. Children will read extracts from the book, focusing on the types and names of sweets that are described in it. They will then use playdough to make "sweets", adding scents, colours and textures/toppings naming them and choosing their characteristics, such as 'Ever-lasting Gobstopper'
