Celebrating Stories and Memory
Tuesday 18th June, 7.00pm, Stewarts Coach House
What stories from a long life would we pass on to the younger generation? How do our memories become stories?

A Woman of a Certain Age. Stories and music inspired by the Cailleach in Irish and Scottish Mythology.
Thursday 20th June, 7pm, Lucan Library
Performance of storytelling and music with Nuala Hayes and harpist and composer Anne Marie O’Farrell. A special evening to celebrate the Eve of the Solstice and World Music Day. Booking advisable. Contact the library on (01) 6216422, email: lucan@sdublincoco.ie

Midsummer Stories and Celebration of Lucan Library’s Summer Stars Right to Read Programme - with Nuala Hayes.
Saturday 22nd June, 3.00pm, Lucan Library
All welcome.

What’s the Story?
A variety of interactive storytelling and performances with Nuala Hayes, Storyteller, Actor and Author
May and June 2019
Welcome!

South Dublin Libraries are delighted to present this exciting series of interactive storytelling events and performances with Nuala Hayes, Storyteller, Actor and Author.

Please find all the details on the following pages.

Booking is essential unless otherwise stated.

Celebrating Stories and Memory

Thursday 16th May, 2.00pm, Tallaght Library

What stories from a long life would we pass on to the younger generation? How do our memories become stories?

This event will explore sharing the wisdom of stories, songs, rhymes and proverbs.

Booking essential. Contact the library on (01) 4620073, email: talib@sdublincoco.ie

Launch of Storyteller in Residence Programme 2019

Celebrating Local Author and Storyteller, Brendan Nolan

Wednesday 22nd May, 7.00pm, Lucan Library

Join piper Martin Nolan and the Storytellers of Ireland in celebrating the life of local author and storyteller Brendan Nolan, who passed away in 2018. Brendan was a prolific collector of stories and author of many books, including Dublin Folktales, published by The History Press, Ireland.

Booking advisable. Contact the library on (01) 6216422, email: lucan@sdublincoco.ie

Storytelling Session for Adults with Nuala Hayes

Monday 27th May, 6.45pm, Clondalkin Library

Join actress and storyteller, Nuala Hayes for this storytelling session for adults.

Booking advisable. Contact the library on (01) 4593315, email: clondalkin@sdublincoco.ie

Story Sharing…. Celebrating Stories and Memory.

Thursday 30th May, 5.00pm, Ballyroan Library

What stories from a long life would we pass on to the younger generation? How do our memories become stories? Join Nuala Hayes for a story sharing session in Ballyroan Library.

Booking advisable. Contact the library on (01) 4941900, email: ballyroan@sdublincoco.ie

Bi-lingual stories with School group.

Wednesday 5th June, 10.30am, Palmerstown Digital Hub

Invited audience only.

Storytelling and Celebration of Tallaght Library’s Summer Stars Right to Read Programme - with Nuala Hayes.

Tuesday 11th June, 11.00am, Tallaght Library

Invited audience only.